outdoor living

Kick back and enjoy yourself.

Outdoor gear has to tread a narrow line between lightness and durability, and the Copper Spur UL4 tent by Big Agnes balances both in this roomy three-season canopy. Its spacious 57-square-foot footprint can easily fit four adults or a family with small children, and its ultralight, easy-to-assemble design means even the smallest camper can pitch in for setup. $600. getting together

Stock your cabin with entertaining essentials.

Keeping hot dishes hot and cold dishes cold during a long social function can be quite a chore. Woolrich Home solves this issue with its attractive Woodland Dip Cooler. Simply fill the lower bowl with hot or cold water, and scoop your dip in the top. The handmade pottery is microwave and dishwasher safe, making cleanup a breeze. $37.50. (800-966-5372; woolrich.com)

A bottle of wine is a common hostess gift, but if you want it chilled for instant enjoyment, you may need a faster solution than the refrigerator. The Cooper Cooler can chill your beverage on the spot. Simply insert the bottle, set the timer for your beverage, and enjoy your drink moments later. A 750mL wine bottle will be perfectly chilled in six minutes, 10 times faster than a freezer. $90. (877-226-6537; coopercooler.com)

Enhance the display of your cherished keepsakes and photos with shelving befitting your collection. Channel happy childhood memories with this Oak Toboggan Shelf by Black Forest Decor. Steam bent from aged oak and elm planks, the three-shelf design can showcase several of your prized possessions in an attractive display. $527. (800-605-0915; blackforestdecor.com)

Instead of filling your space with individual items for storage and seating, use one product for both purposes. The Coventry Storage Bench by Ballard Designs includes a hidden compartment underneath the cushion. Pair it with any number of Coventry sectional pieces, available in myriad colors and patterns, or supply your own fabric for a truly one-of-a-kind design. $359 to $1,007. (800-536-7551; ballarddesigns.com)

small & tidy

Get creative with your cabin's organization.

Smaller cabins require a little more creativity when it comes to storage, so make the most of your existing space. This 10-cubby reclaimed teak bookcase fits underneath your staircase, and can hold books, plants, collectibles and more. $1,025 unfinished. (510-848-3575; thewoodenduck.com)

Cabins are all about simplicity, so avoid adding extraneous pieces to your decor. The Black & Walnut Metal Hall Tree Coat & Hat Rack from 2K Furniture Designs fits right in with your rustic motif and offers a useful place for residents and guests to hang hats, coats, purses and umbrellas. $60. (718-506-9340; 2kfurnituredesigns.com)

No cabin is complete without an animal head wall mount, and this Norwegian moose head lamp fits the bill while adding a warm glow. Ideal for indoor or outdoor use, the poly-resin design emits a smooth light in a whimsical creation that's sure to delight your guests. $1,590. (atelierabigailahern.com)

lighten up

Warm your cabin with lighting that's practical and stylish.

When it's time to call it a night, switch on the Honey Bear Table Lamp by Black Forest Decor. Two eager bear cubs climb the lamp's trunk to reach the glowing glass beehive, which also serves as a secondary nightlight. $263. (800-605-0915; blackforestdecor.com)

Adjustable task lighting usually means gooseneck table lamps, but the Rise and Fall Pendant by Hudson Valley Lighting offers a sleeker design. Using a double-pulley system to modify height, the lamp can work equally well in a kitchen, office or hobby room. $509 to $599. (800-814-3993; hudsonvalleylighting.com)

The Clear Storage Jar Lamp by Arhaus provides the perfect solution for seasonal decor display. Fill it with sea glass, marbles, golf balls and tees, or whatever you can dream up for a display all your own. $299. (866-427-4287; arhaus.com)
